State Conservative Convention!

It is resolved by the State Executive Committee of the Constitutional Union Party of North Carolina, that a State Convention of the party be held in the City of Raleigh, on WEDNESDAY, the 5th day of February, A. D. 1868, at 11 o'clock of that day.

It is confidently hoped that the friends of a Constitutional Union and civil liberty will be active in the effort to make the Convention the largest and most respectable that ever assembled in the State.

Let the Conservative people in every County of the State, where meetings have not been held, hold meetings at once, pass appropriate resolutions, appoint delegates and see that they attend the Convention.—The condition of public affairs demands the patriotic effort and co-operation of every good citizen, to save the country from impending danger.

By order of the State Executive Committee.

R. C. BADGER,
Secretary.

January 4th, A. D. 1868.

IT IS UNDERSTOOD that Gen. Ord, the late Military Commander of District No. 4, has expressed the decided opinion, that the attempt to establish universal negro-suffrage in the South will be a failure, giving, as a reason for the belief, the fact that the whites and a large number of the blacks are opposed to it.

This statement we believe to be literally true of all portions of the South, as to the opposition with which negro-suffrage meets, almost universally among the whites, and among sensible blacks. We have conversed with a number of colored men of all shades and of different degrees of intelligence, and we have not met with the first man, who believes that the masses of colored men in the South are either entitled to it or capable of exercising it. There are thirteen colored men in the so-called Convention in this City, who, we have no doubt, however they might express themselves now, have heretofore, at some time since the question has been agitated, declared the opinion that the masses of their color were unfit to exercise the privilege of suffrage.

Many of the whites in the Convention, who have pledged themselves to vote for it, are not influenced by the conviction that the masses of the colored people are either capable of its exercise, or ever will be. The great body of the whites in the Convention, moved by the fear that Congress will force it upon us or something worse, and from motives of a partizan character, will vote for it, but there are not ten men in the Convention, who conscientiously believe that the negroes, as a race, are entitled to any such privilege, or that humanity, or right, or justice, either to the negroes or whites, demand it. Their assent to such an outrage upon civilization is based entirely upon the will of Congress, as a partizan measure, offering the only hope to the continued success of the Radical party. No man, whose opinion is entitled to consideration, can pretend that Congress has the right to force upon the Southern people so outrageous a degradation. Sane men, who pretend to look upon the outrage with complacency, or approval, stultify their convictions of right, and can find their only justification for enforcing so criminal a deformity on the body politic, in the plea of necessity or expediency.

In expressing ourselves thus strongly, we give vent to no prejudice, no ill-feeling, no sentiment of injustice to the colored race. The intimation, come from what quarter it may, that we would again entangle the negro race in the yoke of bondage, is a base slander, contradicted by our every act and declaration. We are in favor of granting the negro the largest liberty he is capable of enjoying; the exercise of which would be neither pernicious to society nor to himself. We believe that the exercise of suffrage, on the part of the masses of the negro population, is not only an act of injustice to the whites, and a crime against the State, but would prove an unmixed evil to the colored race and to society at large.

We regard the inferences drawn by the Radicals from Mr. Jefferson's declaration that "all men are created equal," &c., as infidel in their character, contradicted by the word of God and contrary to all experience and observation. Men were created equal, seminally, in Adam. Had man maintained his original purity, all the rights and privileges which God endowed him with would have been his, and the right of all his progeny, forever. But man fell, became a guilty and depraved being, and the subject of sin, infirmity and all its consequences. Hence, men, however created, are not born equal, and cannot be made equal in society or as subjects of human government. The natural instincts, habitudes and idiosyncracies of the five varieties of the human race will always make them unequal, and indeed inequalities will be always found to exist among those of the same variety.

TOURGEE, of Ohio, sic Guilford, it would appear, has set himself up as the great Judicial Reformer in the "so-called." He hasn't even a license to practise law in North Carolina.

QUESTIONS.

It would, perhaps, be idle, at this late day, to attempt to arouse the conscience and the patient and honest reflection of the Ex Provisional Governor, but we are tempted to try it.

His paper, it is true, proves him to have been the most chameleon-like politician ever known in the State. He has been, at different periods, for and against every man of any prominence in the State—for and against every public measure and every political principle he has ever discussed. Men change their opinions and have a right to do this, from honest conviction, but their principles, if they have any, cannot be changed so easily.

Has he not been the most zealous advocate of secession, at one time, in the State? Has he not, with equal zeal, denounced secession and secessionists and advocated Union principles at another? Has he not been one of the strongest advocates of slavery at the South, and one of the most bitter denunciators of abolitionists, black Republicans and Radicals? Has he not most shamelessly abused the negroes and the free negroes among us? Was he not opposed to the abolition of slavery? After the South generally acquiesced in the freedom of the slaves, was he not opposed to negroes testifying in our Courts? Was he not opposed to negroes sitting on juries? Was he not opposed to negro suffrage? How comes it, then, that he is so warm an advocate for all these measures, now?

Has the negro changed, or has Mr. Holden changed? Is the negro any better or much wiser than he was a year or eighteen months ago? Does he believe that the negro race is qualified for suffrage? Does he believe that they are qualified for jurors?—Can he, or any one else, prove that either privilege is essential to the preservation of their rights?

Was he not, at one time, a warm defender of President Johnson and his policy?—Why did he forsake Mr. Johnson? Has Mr. Johnson changed? Why does he now advocate Radicalism, which he formerly despised? Surely, a man, so abusive of others, so great a denouncer of inconsistency, or of sinister feeling and action, cannot himself have been influenced by inordinate ambition, or sinister, selfish motives?

Has Holden any regard for the Constitution of the United States, which he so warmly defended? Has he any love now for State rights or for the Union of the States, which he so strongly advocated? Has he any love for the rights and interests of the white race? Has he any love for North Carolina? The poor whites! Ah! surely he has some regard for the poor whites, the working men! And yet, he would put the negro, however ignorant or debased, on an equality with every white man in the State!

OATHS.—The time was, when no man, who claimed to be respectable, was indifferent to the character of an oath. It was the pride of our people, that however reckless men might be, in common conversation, yet when they were brought to the book, every one expected to get the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth. Is it so now?

Every member of the Radical Convention, now sitting in this city, has taken an oath to support and defend the Constitution of the United States. The best legal judgment of the country has pronounced the Reconstruction Acts unconstitutional.—How, then, can they vote to incorporate its requirements into the organic law of the State?

IMMIGRATION.—Notwithstanding the efforts of radicalism to discourage white immigration to this State, we are pleased to observe that a party of Scotchmen, brought on by the Virginia Immigration Society, have recently reached Lynchburg. The News states that a large number is soon expected to arrive.

Our Virginia cotemporaries frequently allude to new settlers and foreign emigrants coming into that State. The fact that a party of Scotchmen have been induced to immigrate to that State, through the agency of the Virginia Immigration Society, is encouraging. No better class of emigrants can possibly come from Europe than the Scotch. They are generally an industrious, sober, law-abiding and God-fearing people.

Why is it that the large number of Scotch and their descendants, in this State, do not offer inducements to their fellow-countrymen to come to our midst? If families, possessing means enough to purchase small farms, could be induced to come into North Carolina and buy our good, but cheap, lands, it would be a valuable accession.

CONVENTION ORDINANCES.—Several of the District Commanders have decided that all the ordinances, passed by the Radical Conventions, are null and inoperative, until the Constitution they make is ratified and goes into force, unless they may think proper to incorporate them in the orders they issue from head-quarters. With such an understanding, (which is certainly a correct decision,) why should the Convention waste time and money in ordinary legislation, which does not legitimately come within the scope of its powers, as defined by the Reconstruction Acts?

THE TELEGRAPH ANNOUNCED, on yesterday, the defeat of Butler's amendment to the pending "reconstruction" bill in Congress. That amendment provided that the so-called Conventions should fill the civil offices to be vacated by the bill. If the infamous measure is to become a law, let us have military Governors, Treasurers, Judges, Magistrates, Constables, Coroners, &c. Better anything than negroes and native low whites, whose gauge of "loyalty" is office and pay, and whose greedy souls are only hankering for the "flesh-pots."

GEN. LEE'S VIEWS ON THE POLITICAL SITUATION.—In conversation, says the Louisville Democrat, with Gen. Preston, of this State, who has recently returned from a visit to Gen. R. E. Lee, he remarked that the General had said to him, that "the course of Gen. Hancock was the first dawn of hope he had seen for the people of the South since the termination of the war."

The "Constitutional Convention," (So-called.)

TUESDAY, Jan. 21st, 1868.

Prayer by the Rev. Henry Eppes, (negro,) by request of the President.

Mr. Mark May, of Macon, appeared, was qualified and took his seat.

The President announced, as the Committee to wait on his Excellency, the Governor, Messrs. Bradley, Heaton and Andrews.

Mr. Dowd remarked that all the delegates were on Committees except two, and as he was on several, he requested that his name might be stricken from the Committee on Bill of Rights, and that of Dr. J. H. Baker be substituted. So ordered.

Mr. Andrews said that the Committee to wait on the Governor wished to do so today, and that Mr. Heaton was absent from the City. Whereupon, the President substituted Mr. Abbott.

Mr. Watts also said that he was on several Committees, and suggested that his name be stricken from the Committee on Corporations, and that of Mr. Parker be inserted.

Mr. Fisher presented a memorial from citizens of Bladen, asking to be relieved from debts incurred for purchase of slaves. Referred to Committee on Relief.

Mr. Abbott offered a resolution to raise a Committee of three, to consult with Gen. Canby on matters of public interest. Lies over.

J. H. Harris, of Wake, (negro,) offered a resolution regarding public officers. Referred to the Committee on Bill of Rights.

Mr. Congleton offered a resolution, that no property qualification be embodied in the Constitution. Referred to the Committee on Suffrage.

Mr. Welker introduced a resolution, restricting the powers of legislation. Referred.

Mr. Tourgee, a resolution in regard to the rights of electors. Referred to the Committee on Suffrage.

Mr. Dowd, a resolution declaring unconstitutional all Stay Laws. Lies over.

Mr. Mullican, a resolution declaring certain amendments to the Bill of Rights of N. C. Referred.

J. H. Harris, of Wake, (negro,) a resolution that the Committee on Education inquire into the disposition of the School fund. Laid over.

Mr. Tourgee, a resolution amending the rules of order. Laid over.

Mr. Legg, a resolution in reference to suffrage and eligibility to office. Referred to Committee on Suffrage.

Mr. Baker, a resolution to remove disfranchisements and to confer the elective franchise on all male citizens, without distinction. Referred to Committee on Suffrage.

Mr. Hodnett's resolution, of yesterday, came up, when Mr. H. asked its reference to the Committee on Suffrage, and it was so ordered.

Mr. Morton's resolution, of yesterday, for the relief of the people, was taken up, when Mr. Abbott moved that it be referred to the Committee of the Whole, now about to sit. Agreed to.

The Convention then went into Committee of the Whole, Mr. Sweet, of Craven, being called to the chair,—when the Secretary recounted the various matters that were made the special orders for the consideration of the Committee at this hour.

The resolution of Mr. McDonald, of Chatham, and Mr. Rodman's ordinance, as a substitute, (both heretofore published) were taken up.

Mr. Abbott did not think time enough had been allowed for consideration, and therefore moved that the Committee do now rise and report the following: That the matter be referred to a Committee of eight.

He, however, withdrew it, at the request of Mr. Patrick, when Mr. P. moved to amend Mr. Rodman's ordinance, by substituting his own of yesterday.

Mr. Patrick also withdrew his motion, at the request of Mr. Rodman, who wished to introduce an amendment to his ordinance, varying somewhat its phraseology.

Mr. Tourgee moved to refer it to the Committee of eight.

Mr. Abbott would amend, so as to make it embrace the whole subject matter under discussion.

Mr. Graham, of Orange, offered the following resolution as a substitute for Mr. Abbott's resolution:

Whereas, This Convention has been called for the purpose of forming a Constitution, and its power to legislate is at least questionable, we, the delegates, deeply sympathising with the general distress prevailing throughout the State, do request Maj. Gen. Canby to issue such orders and make such regulations as may be necessary to prevent the property of the people of North Carolina from being sold under executions at ruinous sacrifices, and to afford relief from all debts contracted prior to May 1st, 1865.

Mr. McDonald, of Chatham, regarded the power of the Convention as paramount; it could do anything—even turn over the State House, if they wished to. The people demanded relief and they must have it.

Mr. Abbott said that the only reason why he wished to refer to a Committee was that he wished for time to consider. He was in no condition to vote for either of the propositions at present.

Mr. Graham, of Orange, said that he entertained doubts as to the power of the Convention to legislate in these matters, but would not press his resolution, offered as a substitute, and asked its reference to the Committee of eight, as it had an intimate connection with the business now under debate. Agreed to.

The question recurred on Mr. Abbott's resolution, appointing a Committee of eight, and it was adopted, after having been amended, by Mr. Nicholson, so as to make it consist of one from each Judicial District.

Mr. Tourgee's ordinance, in regard to oppression in the Courts in criminal causes, was taken up. He said that when persons were not found guilty of charges preferred, they were made to pay the costs of witnesses, &c., &c. There were instances in this House of this kind. Said it was made a system of oppression, that bad men resorted to, and it was against the policy of all Republican governments to impoverish a man, in order to clear himself from false charges. He hoped such an ordinance would be incorporated in the Code of new North Carolina.

Mr. Jones, of Washington, made a point of order. He said that this was a matter of relief and should go to the Committee. The Chair did not sustain the point.

Mr. J. resumed, saying that there was a law in regard to the matter under consideration in existence, and proceeded to recite the meaning and scope of the statute,—remarking that if persons, who were oppressed in this manner, did not choose to apply for its benefits, it was no body's fault but their own, and that there was no intimation that any Judge had failed to do his duty in this respect.

Mr. Rodman did not entirely agree with either of the gentlemen, and proceeded to recite the law as it stood, in his opinion, and how it was applied in various cases.

Mr. Tourgee said his object, in introducing the ordinance, was to bring the matter clearly before the Convention; he thought it inexpedient to allow the Judge to levy a tax for the cost, when parties were found not guilty, and would like to see the matter referred to the Committe on Preamble and Bill of Rights, with instructions to report the substance of the same as one of the sections of the Bill of Rights.

After some further discussion, the matter was referred to the Committee on the Judiciary.

On motion of Mr. Tourgee, the Committee then rose, and the Chairman reported progress.

The President resumed his chair, when

Mr. Abbott's resolution, in regard to immigration, was read and adopted.

Mr. Mann's resolution, in regard to delegates being disturbed by visitors in the lobbies, was read.

Mr. Gunter moved to lay it on the table, when, it being ascertained that Mr. Mann was absent, it was, in deference to him, laid over.

Mr. Logan's resolution, in relation to the Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions of Rutherford County, after some modification, was referred to the Judiciary Committee.

J. W. Hood's (negro) resolution, in regard to the per diem and mileage, was next reached; when

Mr. Rich, of Pitt, moved to amend, by striking out "6" and inserting "8," and "12" for the President, instead of "10."

Hood said that six dollars was the usual per diem, and he did not see why they should go beyond it. He would vote against the amendment.

Mr. McDonald, of Chatham, advocated the original resolution.

Mr. Bryan said that he observed a disposition to raise the per diem. He heard a cry for relief, and did not see how the Convention could consistently vote themselves eight dollars per day. He thought that if eight was fixed, some delegates would go in for staying till March or April; and he moved to amend by inserting "4" for members and "7" for President.

The President ruled Mr. Bryan out of order, as a call for the yeas and nays (previously made by Mr. Hodnett,) precluded further amendments.

Mr. Rich was not ashamed to put his name on the record, as voting for eight dollars.

Mr. Tourgee said if the Convention had the same fortune as the other Conventions, they might wait a long time for their money. He wished for a fair per diem.

Mr. King was in favor of four dollars per day.

Mr. Dowd advocated the motion for eight.

Harris, of Wake, (negro,) was opposed to eight and hoped the proposition would be voted down.

Mr. Welker said that the people that sent them here wished them to have a fair and honorable compensation.

Mr. Abbott did not think ten dollars too much, but would vote for six,—anything to get rid of the subject.

[There was much further wrangling over this matter, resulting in a perfect muddle—so great that Mr. Watts said that he feared the members did not understand what was before them. And finally, without arriving at any conclusion, the Convention adjourned.]

For the Sentinel.

GREAT EXCITEMENT IN GRAHAM! A MYSTERIOUS PUBLIC MEETING! LOYALTY AT A PREMIUM!!

Messrs. Editors:—I am informed that Mayor Hunter, of Graham, has received the proceedings of a public meeting from Col. Bomford, of Raleigh, purporting to have been held in Graham, on the 27th. of December.

Col. Joe McMurray, Post Master, presided, Husbands, (negro,) was Secretary, and James Fonville, Orator.

The resolutions passed claim the right to select for the loyal citizens Commissioners for the town. They recommend for Commissioners: Martin Van Buren, (negro,) Stephen Hurdle, (negro,) Wm. F. Jones, Confederate contractor to make oil-cloth cloaks for Confederate soldiers, John W. Harding, who was a good Confederate soldier, and, lastly, James Fonville, orator, who volunteered (being over conscript age) to suppress disloyalty in Moore County during the war. He actually made an invasion into the territory of Moore County, with the militia of Alamance, and he is reported to have killed a sheep in the expedition, and, after eating it, fell back to Graham, threatening he would kill fifty Yankees, to be revenged for the loss of his son, who was slain in battle.

The President of the meeting is the loyal Joe McMurray, who figured on the docket in Orange so largely some years ago. But Col. Joe's loyalty is the thing. He was the great noisy run-about in Alamance for the confederate cause, collecting clothes and supplies for the army,—and he was a volunteer in the business.

Graham is a happy town, blessed with such loyalty. No man surpassed those recommended Commissioners for loyalty, except Gov. Holden, who asked "who would plot for the head of Abe Lincoln?"

Q.

CONSERVATIVE MEETING IN WILKES.

A meeting of the citizens of Wilkes county was held at the Court-House, in Wilkesboro', on Saturday, the 18th. inst., for the purpose of appointing delegates to the Conservative Constitutional Convention, to be held in Raleigh, on Wednesday, February 5th.

The meeting was organized, by calling James E. Reynolds, Esq., to the chair and Philo C. Hall to act as Secretary.

On motion, Dr. James Calloway explained the object of the meeting, when the following gentlemen were appointed delegates:

On motion, the Chairman and Secretary were also appointed.

JAMES E. REYNOLDS, Ch'm.
PHILO C. HALL, Sec'y.

THE SOUTH AND THE NEW YORK DRY GOODS TRADE.—A New York paper thus speaks of the Southern trade in dry goods:

"A few orders from the South have come to hand, chiefly for light prints, and it is thought that the trade in that section of the country will be limited to such purchases to complete assortments. Money is so scarce there, as to render the matter of collections very difficult, and although there has been much rivalry in the trade to secure the Southern business, and the belief in the good faith of dealers there is generally still unshaken, the risk has become too great for the profit to be made out of it."

Rev. Wm. E. Munsey has consented to deliver the commencement address at Randolph Macon College, Va., in June next.

REDISTRICTING OHIO.—Private advices have been received from Columbus, to the effect that the Legislature is about to pass a bill so changing the present Congressional districts as to insure the return of Democrats from all but two—at least it is the opinion at Columbus that this can be done. The bill accomplishing this is nearly ready, and the purpose is to put it through without debate. Of course this has created great excitement in the Ohio delegation here, and quite a number are urging the importance of passing a bill to prevent gerrymandering. But the Legislature appears to have the start, and can perfect its measure before such a bill could possibly be made a law here, provided the President chose either to veto it, or retain it for the time to which he is entitled. The Republican Congressmen from Ohio are greatly concerned by the signs of the times in Columbus.—Wash. Express, 20th.

A delegation from the Cherokee Nation of North Carolina, consisting of G. W. Bushyhead, principal chief, Johnson G. S. Key, Dalna Gusky, and Chee-we-whisks, have arrived in Washington, and are stopping at Joy's Hotel. Their object is to arrange for the payment of their annuities, which were unpaid while they were in the Confederate lines.—Wash. paper.

GENERAL MEADE.—Senator Wilson, says a dispatch to the New York Commercial Advertiser, has received a letter from General Meade, to the effect that he will take strong Radical measures and enforce the reconstruction policy of Congress.

THE

ÆTNA LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY

OF HARTFORD.

ASSETS OVER $7,000,000.

PAID POLICIES BY DEATH, IN NORTH CAROLINA: $33,000.

Judge E. A. BULKELEY, President. T. O. ENDERS, Secretary.

W. H. CROW,

MANAGER AND GENERAL AGENT

FOR THE STATE OF

NORTH CAROLINA AND PART OF VIRGINIA.

IN COMPARING THIS COMPANY WITH FORTY-TWO COMPANIES, AND BY THE REPORT of the Insurance Commissioners of Massachusetts, the following facts appear, under OFFICIAL ENDORSEMENT:

1st, The Ætna issued more policies than either of forty other Companies. More than four times the average, AND NEARLY ONE-TENTH OF ALL.

2nd. That excluding Capital, the Ætna's ratio of Assets to Liabilities is larger than that of twenty-nine Companies, AND MORE THAN THE AVERAGE OF ALL.

3rd. That the Ætna's receipts are larger than those of either of thirty-eight other Companies, and more than three times the average, and more than ONE-THIRTEENTH OF ALL.

4th. That the Ætna's ratio of expenses to receipts is less than that of twenty-nine other Companies, and LESS than the average of all.

5th. That the Ætna's ratio of increase in premium receipts to its cost, is greater than that of any other Company, and four times the average. [See table "C," in Insurance Report.]

6th. That the Ætna's ratio of losses is sixteen per cent less than the average.

7th. That the Ætna's ratio per cent. of increase in Assets is greater than that of any other Company, and more than four times the average.

It will be observed from these comparisons that many Companies do not make so good a showing as the Ætna, although they are unquestionably reliable.

The "ÆTNA" is an old and well-tried institution, and the above extract from the highest official authority upon the subject of Life Insurance commends the Company at once to the thoughtful and serious enquirer, who wishes to make a CERTAIN provision for those depending upon him.

The Ætna loans her customers one-half the premium as long as life lasts, at six per cent., if desired, and gives no restrictions in location or travel in the United States, at any season of the year, and pays her members the of any Company doing business in this State, and is PERMANENTLY LOCATED HERE; has paid more Revenue into the STATE TREASURY than any other Company, and paid more money to Widows and Orphans than any other, and therefore, with all of those facts, well deserves the largest patronage, and IS RECEIVING IT.

The ÆTNA, being a STOCK COMPANY, gives all the benefit of dividends to her insured and none of the liabilities usual in "Mutual insurance."

Six per cent interest is allowed upon the Capital Stock of $150,000, and the balance of the profit goes to the insured, which profit or dividend is larger than any other Company doing business in the State.

The ÆTNA has over

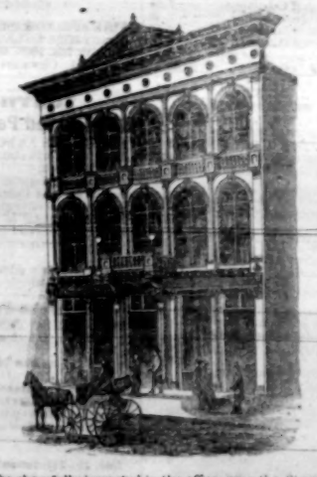
ABOVE LIABILITIES.



THE ÆTNA IS A STRANGER TO LITIGATION, A VERY IMPORTANT FACT. AND HAS 45,000 MEMBERS. HAS NEVER REFUSED TO RENEW A POLICY LAPSED DURING THE WAR.

Any other facts will be cheerfully imparted in the office, over the Store of Messrs. W. H. & R. S. TUCKER & Co.

MAYOR'S COURT.—James Sutton, alias James Banks, colored, charged with stealing planks from the fence of Parker Overby, at a late hour of the night, was arrested on yesterday, lodged in the Guard House and returned to the County Court.

MUNICIPAL MATTERS.—Numerous rumors have been afloat, within a day or two, of changes to be made in our present municipal authorities. As yet no action has transpired in the premises. Monday last was the day fixed by law for the annual Charter election. None having been held, the present City officers hold over, under the military orders, until successors shall be appointed. Of one thing we are sure, and that is, that if changes are made, so far as the recommendations of our excellent Post Commandant may avail, none but the most competent and proper men, that can be commanded under the circumstances, will be appointed. The selfish schemes of party intriguers will not influence his course.

SARGENT'S DRAMATIC COMPANY.—This troupe, which was to have exhibited at Tucker Hall, last night, failed to arrive,—having missed the connection. They will arrive this morning, and their first appearance will take place to-night.

DEATH OF A FORMER CITIZEN OF RALEIGH.—Col. Benson F. Jones died suddenly, at his residence in Chesterfield, Va., on the 14th. inst., in the 67th. year of his age. Col. Jones, until within a few years past, was a citizen of Raleigh, and was universally esteemed for his great kindness of heart. The announcement of his death will be received with regret by all who knew him.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.—We have neglected to notice the marked improvements our friends of the Presbyterian Church have been making in their house of worship. The changes have been going on for some time, indeed, and, therefore, one does not observe how much has been done unless the present appearance be compared with the edifice six months ago.

The whole interior of the building has been changed; the pulpit lowered to a more becoming position; the stoves removed and a furnace substituted; the pews, galleries and wood-finish handsomely painted and grained; the orchestra rendered more convenient and comfortable; the floor of the church, the pulpit and stairways carpeted, and the walls of the building have been plastered and painted to represent stone. The new pulpit is neat, unassuming and elegantly finished, and, therefore, is a vast improvement on the old, especially in the fact that it is not so high, perched on pillars with a flight of stairs to reach it, but more in accordance with modern, and, we may say, (conservative and old fashioned as we are,) correct ideas of taste. The subdued light, the shaded walls, the dark walnut finished pews, the comfortable sittings, the creditable music, and we may add the excellent ministrations of the respected pastor, Rev. Mr. Atkinson, render this place of worship very attractive not only to the congregation to whom these old walls, with their new garniture, are precious, but also to the "stranger within the gates."

The Lecture Room has been repainted and refitted, within and without, and some attention paid to the exterior of the Church building. We sincerely hope that the severity of the times may not prevent as complete and beautiful a transformation without as within. We know if their means be commensurate with their desires, it will be done.

STATE LIBRARIAN.—We learn that Theo. H. Hill, Esq., having been notified of the extraordinary fact that it would be necessary for him to take the "iron-clad," before entering upon his duties as State Librarian, by virtue of the appointment of the Trustees, (the Governor and the Judges of the Supreme Court,) on yesterday tendered his resignation. Mr. Hill did this as much from unwillingness, as inability, to take the required oath. We know few men who would have performed more acceptably or efficiently the duties of Librarian, than Mr. H., had this appointment been permitted to stand by the Military Ruler.

THE MUZZLE.—Since Cuffee Mayo, the African delegate from Granville, was summarily squelched, the other day, when he rose to "expatiate" in the great so-called, the public have been agog to know what it was that Cuffee wanted to say. Halifax and Bertie, also, have not been heard from. We protest against this manifest wrong of gagging a "friend and brother," simply because he may not have as oily an exterior, or as glib a tongue, as Harris or Galloway. From Mayo's previous experience in shoeing horses, we are sure that, if he had not been stifled, he would have "hit the nail on the head." Let "justice be done,"—though Lindley Murray suffer!

COMMITTEES.—Of the twelve Standing Committees of the Convention, appointed by Mr. Cowles, the President, six of the Chairmen are Northern men, who have recently come into the State, viz: Heaton, Sweet, Abbott, Tourgee, Welker and Ashley. There are some thirteen Northern men in the Convention, who have thus recently come into the State, and we find the names of two or three of them on almost every Committee!

GALLOWAY, (negro,) has been placed by the President on the so-called on the Judiciary Committee. Shade of Gaston!

IN GEORGIA the newspapers are calling upon the Convention, now in session at Atlanta, to do something for the distressed people of that State. One paper says that over one-half of the property and homesteads are in the hands of the sheriffs, and that one-half of the families will soon be made homeless by these officers, unless the Convention arrest the proceedings of creditors. Property, it is stated, brings nothing at public sale, and its sale only makes families homeless, and pays no portion of the indebtedness of the people.

THE FISHERMEN.—The North Carolina fishermen have recently made heavy purchases of seine twine in this market, preparatory to the commencement of the fishing operations, to begin in a few weeks.—For many years fishing has been a prolific source of profit to the Albemarle region and its tributary waters. We earnestly hope that the same success may attend the efforts of the fishermen this season.—Norfolk Journal.

The general failure of the crops in the Eastern part of the State, the past year, makes it very desirable that there should be a good fishing season, the approaching Spring. We wish our fishermen great success.

Washington Correspondence of the New York World.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 18.

Mr. Stanton continues to act as Secretary of War. I learn officially that he is not and will not be recognized by the President. The latter will issue no orders to him, and Mr. Stanton can issue no orders by Mr. Johnson's authority. The heads of the Treasury and Navy Departments transact official business with Mr. Stanton, a course in which the President does not interfere at present, considering the necessary business of the government. It is not proposed by Mr. Johnson to issue at once the order reducing Mr. Stanton to the position of a mere clerk in the War Department, which he could be made to occupy; for it is confidently expected that the Ex-Secretary will ultimately feel compelled to resign.

The Intelligencer to-day calls upon Grant to come out and admit or deny the truthfulness of the statement of Mr. Johnson's understanding of Grant's promises about the Stanton affair, and that paper will to-morrow contain an editorial, in which it is alleged that at the Cabinet meeting to-day, the members compared notes as to what took place at their meeting on Tuesday, when Grant was present, and they agree that Grant admitted the correctness of the President's statement of the agreement between himself and Mr. Johnson, viz: that Grant was to hold on to the office, or give the President timely notice to enable him to appoint another Secretary, ad interim.

It is learned that the President has expressed himself to day in the most positive manner respecting the revolutionary measures now being put through Congress. If Congress so enacts as to deprive him of any portion of his constitutional authority, the Executive, who was as directly elected by and as directly represents the people as Congress was and does, may be expected to resist such an encroachment with all the power at his command. His right and duty as Commander-in-Chief of the Army, of which it is proposed to deprive him in the pending Reconstruction bill, are among the chief prerogatives which Mr. Johnson will consistently defend.

GRANT PRESSED TO THE WALL.—The National Intelligencer of Saturday says:

"We stated on Wednesday the plain facts in reference to the promises of Gen. Grant to the President in regard to the Stanton affair. We reiterated this statement yesterday morning. In the mean time we understand that, with or without the procurement of General Grant, a sort of denial of these facts has found publication. We have afforded General Grant an opportunity to deny this statement, and we now say emphatically, that although we might have gone into details more damaging to Gen. Grant, the averments made by us can be fully substantiated by the members of the Cabinet who were present at the interview when Gen. Grant fully and unequivocally acknowledged all that has been charged in regard to his promise and his breach of faith."

With Grant Commander-in-Chief of the army and Dictator of a third of the country, with Logan "Grand Commander of the Republic," and Butler generalissimo of the negro forces, the Radicals profess themselves certain of success. Let the people see to it in time, or the programme may be carried out.—Wash. Cor. Baltimore Gazette.

Wednesday Morning Dispatches.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21, P. M.

In a conversation respecting the present situation and his future purposes the President said: "A modification—perhaps I might say a decided change—of public sentiment in the North has been the consequence. One who held fast to a principle, when a majority was arrayed against him, is not likely to loosen his hold upon it, when so much of the pressure has been removed."

The Cabinet meeting was full to-day, except Stanton.

The Senate Judiciary Committee will consider, to-morrow morning, the House bill changing the Supreme Court. It is understood that the Committee stands 3 in favor of and 4 opposed to the bill.

Chase, Swayne and Miller are opposed to advancing the McCardle case.

CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21, P. M.

House:—After ineffectual efforts to amend, supported by Butler, Stevens and Kelly, the Reconstruction bill, as reported by the Committee, passed—Yeas 128, Nays 45. Carey, of Ohio, and Stewart, of New York, voting with the Democrats.

The majority and minority reports on the election of John Young Brown, of Kentucky, were ordered to be printed. The majority report is adverse to his admission.

The Conference Committee on the anti-contraction bill reported that the Senate recede from its amendment, and pass the House bill, with an amendment allowing the destruction and re-issue of mutilated bills; which was adopted.

The Committee on the cotton tax was unable to agree. The new Committee on the part of the House consists of Schenck, Morehead and Beall.

Senate.—A petition of Isaac July, and other members of the Georgia Convention, was presented for authority to establish civil Government.

Mr. Sumner presented a petition from citizens of Texas, alleging that the Federal officers of that State are non-residents and generally not in sympathy with the Union men but favor the policy of the administration. The memorialists pray that the Senate will withhold their confirmations, as there are enough loyal Texans to fill these offices.

The President was requested to inform the Senate, whether James A. Seddon, whom the President has recently pardoned, was Secretary of War of the Confederate States, while Wirz was keeper of the Andersonville prison, and also how many Union soldiers died from starvation and other cruelties inflicted in violation of civilized war, during Seddon's Secretaryship.

Mr. Conness offered a resolution, reciting the American arrests in Great Britain, and directing the President to enquire if the arrests were made without sufficient causes, and, if so, to demand their release and enforce the demand by the army and navy.

The case of Senator Thomas, of Maryland, was discussed and postponed with the understanding that a vote will be taken to-morrow.

SUPREME COURT.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21, P. M.

In the ex parte McCardle case Chief Justice Chase announced that a majority of the Justices thought that the motion of the appellant should be allowed, and ordered that the case be advanced on the docket and assigned for a hearing on the first Monday in March.

In the case of the Commonwealth of Virginia vs West Virginia, the Chief Justice announced that the Court was equally divided; also upon the order which shall be made in consequences of division.

In the case of John Armstrong, claimant, vs, the United States, a motion to file a plea of pardon was allowed, unless the Attorney General proposes to contest the sufficiency of the plea, by a replication of the matter arising since the pardon.

VIRGINIA CONVENTION.

RICHMOND, Jan. 21, P. M.

A Committee of four white members, and one black, was appointed to wait on Gen. Grant and invite him to visit the Convention. One Conservative declined serving on the Committee, because a colored member was on it. The announcement was received with hisses from the negroes in the gallery.

SOUTH CAROLINA CONVENTION.

CHARLESTON, Jan. 21, P. M.

The Convention adopted a resolution requesting Canby to suspend the sales of property, under execution, for three months.

Also inviting one of the Solicitors of the State to aid in preparing business for the Convention.

The proposition to abolish the District Courts of the State was voted down, on the ground that the legitimate business of the Convention is simply to frame a Constitution.

The temper of the body is moderate, especially among the negroes. The Bill of Rights submitted to-day is very conservative.

THE FLORIDA "SO-CALLED."

TALLAHASSEE, Jan. 21st, P. M.

The delegates to the Convention met at the Capitol on yesterday,—barely a quorum in attendance. The temporary officers were all negroes. A permanent organization was effected by the election of Daniel Richards, President; Christy, (white,) Secretary; a negro, Assistant Secretary, and most of the subordinate officers negroes. So far, the Convention appears to be entirely in the hands of the extremists.

DAILY SENTINEL.

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 22, 1868.

AN EXTRAORDINARY INVENTION—A STEAM MAN.

"Mr. Zadock Deddrick, a Newark machinist, has invented a man—one that, moved by steam, will perform some of the most important functions of humanity; that will, standing upright, walk or run, as he is bid, in any direction, and at almost any rate of speed, drawing after him a load whose weight would tax the strength of three stout draught-horses. The history of this curious invention is as follows: Six years ago, Mr. Deddrick, the inventor, who is at present but twenty-two years of age, conceived the novel idea of constructing a man that should receive its vitality from a perpetual-motion machine. The idea was based on the well-known mechanical principle that, if a heavy weight be placed at the top of an upright slightly inclined from a vertical, gravitation will tend to produce a horizontal as well as vertical motion.—The project was not successful. However, by observing carefully the cause of the failure, preserving and perfecting the main form, and by substituting steam in place of the perpetual-motion machine the present success was attained.

"The man stands seven feet and nine inches high, the other dimensions of the body being correctly proportioned, making him a second Daniel Lambert, by which name he is facetiously spoken of among the workmen. He weighs five hundred pounds. Steam is generated in the body or trunk, which is nothing but a three-horse power engine, like those used in our steam fire engines. The legs which support it are complicated and wonderful. The steps are taken very naturally and quite easily. As the body is thrown forward upon the advanced foot the other is lifted from the ground by a spring and thrown forward by the steam. Each step or pace advances the body two feet, and every revolution of the engine produces four paces. As the engine is capable of making more than a thousand revolutions a minute, it would get over the ground, on this calculation, at the rate of a little more than a mile in a minute. As this would be working the legs faster than would be safe on uneven ground or on Broad street cobble stones, it is proposed to run the engine at the rate of five hundred revolutions per minute, which would walk the man at the modest speed of half a mile a minute.

"The fellow is attached to a common Rockaway carriage, the shafts of which serve to support him in a vertical position. These shafts are two bars of iron, fastened in the usual manner to the front of the carriage and are curved so as to be joined to a circular sustaining bar, which passes around the waist, like a girth, and in which the man moves so as to face in any direction. Besides these motions machinery has been arranged by which the figure can be thrown backward or forward from a vertical nearly forty-five degrees. This is done in order to make it to ascend or descend all grades. To the soles of the feet spikes or corks are fixed which effectually prevent slipping. The whole affair is so firmly suspended by the shafts and has so excellent a foothold, that two men are unable to push it over or in any way throw it down. In order to enable it to stop quickly, it is provided with two appliances, one of which will, as before stated, throw it backward from the vertical, while the other bends the knees in a direction opposite to the natural position.

"An upright post, which is arranged in front of the dash board, and within easy reach of the front seats, sustains two miniature pilot wheels, by the turning of which these various motions and evolutions are directed. It is expected that a sufficiently large amount of coal can be stowed away under the back seat of the carriage to work the engine for a day, and enough water in a tank under the front seat to last half a day.

"In order to prevent the giant from frightening horses by its wonderful appearance, Mr. Deddrick intends to clothe it and give it as nearly as possible a likeness to the rest of humanity. The boiler and such parts as are unnecessarily heated will be encased in felt or woollen under-garments. Pantaloons, coat and vest, of the latest styles, are provided. Whenever the fires need cooling, which is every two or three hours, the driver stops the machine, descends from his seat, unbuttons 'Daniel's' vest, opens a door, shovels in the fuel, buttons up the vest and drives on. On the back between the shoulders the steam cocks and gauges are placed. As these would cause the coat to set awkwardly, a knapsack has been provided that completely covers them. A blanket neatly rolled up and placed on the top of the knapsack perfects the delusion. The face is moulded into a cheerful countenance of white enamel, which contrasts well with the dark hair and moustache. A sheet iron hat with a gauge top acts as a smoke stack.

"The cost of the first man is $2,000, though the makers, Messrs. Deddrick & Grass, expect to manufacture succeeding ones, warranted to run a year, without repairs, for $300. The same parties expect to contract, on the same principle, horses which will do the duty of ten or twelve ordinary animals of the same species. These, it is confidently believed, can be used alike before carriages, street cars, and ploughs.—The man now constructed can make his way without difficulty over any irregular surface whose ruts and stones are not more than nine inches below or above the level of the road."

MR. BROOKS TELLS THE RADICALS WHAT THE DEMOCRATS WILL DO.

In the House on Friday, Mr. Brooks, of New York, said:

"We intend to undo what has been done by this Congress, and we shall, sooner or later, have the power within the walls of the House to undo it all. These proceedings in Ohio and New Jersey are but the beginning of the revolution which has already made its appearance elsewhere; and the precedents and prerogatives and powers which the majority in this House is now assuming in the most revolutionary manner we intend to make use of to undo all these revolutionary and violent proceedings.—So the honorable gentleman from Massachusetts might as well make up his mind now to see the beginning of this great reactionary movement. We do not intend to deprive the negroes of the South of their liberty. We intend to allow them a five-fifths representation, not a three-fifths one, which the negroes in the North are having. But we do not intend to allow, so far as we can help it, the people of the North to be brought into negro co-partnership in government on the floor of this House, or to be ruled by black majorities, by rotten boroughs negro constituencies in the South.—We do not intend to be ruled by any such government as that, and all the processes of legislation by which that has been reached, or is to be reached. Through State Legislatures, as in Ohio; through State action, as in New Jersey; through 50,000 popular majority in my own State, to be increased next year to 100,000, if this House goes on with those proceedings, we intend to undo them all. I repeat, that everything which has been done is to be undone. The voice of the people is no longer heard in whispers, but in the loud roar of the whirlwind, coming from all parts of the country; and it will sooner or later unseat a large majority of those who now constitute the majority on this floor, putting in their places the Democracy of the country. If the statistics of elections are examined, even now it will be found that a large majority of members on this side of the House hold their seats here and vote here on these bills who no longer represent their constituents, but are acting in utter defiance of the people who sent them here."

SENTINEL.

Published in the City of Raleigh, N. C., Daily, Semi-Weekly and Weekly.

William E. Pell, } Editors.
Seaton Gales, }

In view of the scarcity of money, and the severity of the times, the Proprietor of the SENTINEL has determined to reduce the terms of the paper, to commence after the 31st. DECEMBER, next, and to make such improvements in its general character as will commend it to the patronage of an enlightened public.

In POLITICS it will be thoroughly Conservative, advocating, at all times:

A strict observance of the Constitution of the United States, and the harmonious Union of equal States;

Obedience to law and the enforcement of order;

The supremacy of the civil over the military, in time of peace;

The equality of the three co-ordinate branches of the government;

The sovereignty of the States over their own internal affairs, in strict conformity to the Constitution;

The maintenance of freedom and justice to all, without distinction of color, but the supremacy of the white race as the governing class;

Opposition to Radicalism in all its phases.

As a NEWS journal, it shall be equal to any.—The principal markets will be regularly published.

Its LITERARY character shall be maintained and improved, by contributions from our best writers.

Finally, the SENTINEL will seek to be the special promoter of the educational, moral and economical interests of the people of North Carolina.

Important Order from Gen. Canby.

HEADQ'RS 2D MILITARY DISTRICT,
CHARLESTON, S. C., Dec. 31, 1867.

General Orders No. 164.

I. Paragraph II of General Orders No. 10, from the Headquarters of the Second Military District, dated April 11, 1867, is modified as follows:

SUITS FOR DEBTS.

Judgments or decrees for the payment of money on causes of action arising in North Carolina between the 20th. of May, 1861, and the 20th day of April, 1865, and in South Carolina between the 19th day of December, 1860, and the 20th day of April 1865, shall not be enforced, by execution against the person or property of the defendant. Proceedings for such causes of action now pending, shall be stayed, and no suit or process shall be instituted or commenced on such causes of action until after the civil government of the respective States shall be established in accordance with the laws of the United States.

Paragraph III of the same order is modified as follows:

EXECUTIONS

Sheriffs, coroners and constables are hereby directed to suspend the sale of all property upon execution, or process under any judgment or decree of a court of the so-called Confederate States, or of the State of North Carolina, rendered between the 20th. day of May, 1861, and the organization of the provisional government of said State, under the President's proclamation of the 29th. day of April, 1865, or of the State of South Carolina, rendered between the 19th. day of December, 1860, and the organization of the provisional government of the said State, under the President's proclamation of the 30th. day of June, 1865, unless the written consent of the defendant be entered of record, and except in cases where the plaintiff or his attorney, upon oath, supported by corroborative testimony, shall allege that the defendant is disposing of, removing, or about to remove, his property beyond the jurisdiction of the court, with intent to defraud his creditors; provided, that no such judgment, so rendered, within the periods aforesaid, shall be a bar to the commencement, in a State court, of a new suit upon the same cause of action in any case in which, by law, the defendant may remove or appeal the same to a court of the United States.

FORECLOSURE OF MORTGAGE.

The sale of real or personal property by foreclosure of mortgage, is likewise suspended in the cases embraced in paragraphs II and III, of said order No. 10 as above amended, except in cases where interest money accruing subsequent to the 20th. of April, 1865, shall not have been paid before the day of sale, and all previous restrictions on such sales are revoked.

Paragraph IV of the same order is modified by substituting the 29th. day of April, 1865, for the 18th. day of May, 1865.

SUITS ON NEGRO DEBTS.

All proceedings for the recovery of money on contracts, whether under seal or by parol, the consideration of which was the purchase of slaves, made subsequent to the 1st. day of January, 1864, are suspended. Judgments or decrees entered for such causes of action shall not be enforced.

HOMESTEADS.

In all sales of property under execution or by order of any Court, there shall be reserved out of the property of any defendant who has a family dependent upon his or her labor, a dwelling house and appurtenances, and (if in the country) twenty acres of land, or so much thereof that the whole shall not exceed in value the sum of two thousand dollars, and in a town or city, the immediate lot upon which such dwelling house is situated; and necessary articles of furniture, apparel, subsistence and implements of husbandry, trade, or other employment, to the value of five hundred dollars. The homestead exemption shall inure only to the benefit of families. In other cases the exemption shall extend only to clothing and implements of trade or employment usually followed by the defendant, of the value of two hundred dollars. The exemptions hereby made shall not be waived or defeated by the act of any defendant who has a family dependent upon him or her for support, and the exempted property shall be ascertained and defined by the sheriff or other officer enforcing the execution, who shall call to his aid two impartial citizens to make the necessary appraisement, and shall make report thereof to the Court.

ARREST FOR FRAUDULENT DEBTS.

Paragraph X is hereby modified so as to authorize arrest in civil actions ex contractu only in cases where the demand is past due, and the defendant has been guilty of a fraud in contracting the debt sued for, or has removed or disposed of his property, or is about to do so, with intent to defraud his creditors, or is about to leave the State with such intent.

EXECUTORS AND TRUSTEES.

Paragraph XVI, is amended by adding thereto: All proceedings in any court of North Carolina, or South Carolina, recognizing or sanctioning the investment of the funds of minor heirs, or of females, or of insane persons, in the securities of the late rebel government, or the securities of the States of North Carolina or South Carolina created for the purpose of carrying on war against the Government of the United States, will be suspended until the question of the validity of such investments shall have been determined by the courts of the United States, or by national legislation. And nothing in the provisions of this order, or of the order No. 10 above cited, shall be held to bar or hinder the recovery, by suit, of the estate of any minor heir, female or insane person, (cestui que trust), whether in the hands of executors, administrators, trustees, guardians, masters or clerks of equity courts, and other fiduciary agents, or invested by them in their fiduciary character.

DISTILLERIES.

II. General Order 25, of May 20, 1867, is revoked; and on and after the first day of January 1868, the distillation of spirituous liquors in this Military District will be subject to such restrictions only as are imposed by the laws of the United States and of the States of North and South Carolina, respectively.

BAR ROOMS.

III. Paragraphs VI and VII of General Orders No. 32, dated May 30, 1867, are revoked, and the power to grant licenses for the sale of spirituous or intoxicating liquors is remitted to the proper local authories, to take effect on and after the 1st day of January, 1868, and to be subject to the following conditions:

1. The municipal authorities granting the license shall be answerable that the parties to whom such licenses are granted, together with their sureties, shall be responsible persons and of good moral standing in the community, and that both principal and sureties shall be able to qualify individually in double the amount of the bond required, and that the bond shall be a lien upon the personal property of both principal and sureties, and upon proof of default shall warrant the summary seizure and sale of so much of the property of either or both as may be necessary to satisfy the forfeiture or fine and costs.

2. Drunkenness or disorderly conduct on the premises shall work the forfeiture of the license and of the penalty of the bond.

3. The owner or keeper of any bar-room, saloon or other place at which intoxicating liquors are sold, and all other persons interested or connected therewith, shall be regarded as principals in any action of damages growing out of any assault, riot, affray or other disorder occurring on the premises, or directly traceable thereto.

4. All bar-rooms, saloons or other places at which intoxicating liquors are sold, shall be closed on the day or days of any general or local election, and for the twelve hours next preceding the opening and next succeeding the closing of the polls at such election; and the sheriffs of counties and districts and the chief of police of cities and towns shall have power to direct the closing of bar-rooms and other places for the sale of intoxicating liquors, whenever it may be necessary in their judgment to preserve order and quiet.

5. The proceeds of all licenses, forfeitures and fines, under the local regulations or under the provisions of military orders, will be devoted to the support of the poor, and as soon as realized will be turned over to the Commissioners or Overseers of the poor of the District, County, City or Town in which they are accrued, and the Commissioners or Overseers will at the end of each month report to the Provost Marshal-General of the District the amount received by them during the month, specifying the name of the parties from whom it was received.

6. The penalties imposed by this order or by the local police regulations, may be enforced in any civil or military Court, and upon conviction the Court may award to the informer a sum not exceeding fifty per cent. of the forfeiture or fine. And it is made the duty of all Sheriffs, Constables, and Coroners of Counties and Districts, and the police of cities and towns, to be vigilant in the enforcement of the police regulations and the provisions of this order in relation to the sale of intoxicating liquors.

The provisions of this paragraph will be held to apply to such licenses granted under General Orders No. 32, to inn-keepers, as remain unexpired after the first of January, 1868.

DISTRICT COURTS.

IV. To promote the speedy trial of prisoners confined for minor offences, and diminish the cost of their maintenance, all committing magistrates will, on the 15th. and last days of each month, report to the judge of their county or District Court all commitments made by them during the preceding half month, specifying the date of commitments, the names of the prisoners, and the offences for which they were committed, to the end that the judges may, whenever in their opinion the number of prisoners or other considerations of public interest call for it, hold special sessions of their courts, for the purpose of disposing of such cases. The additional expense of holding such special terms will be a charge upon the State Treasury, and the accounts therefor will be audited and paid as accounts of a similar character are now audited and paid, and if the salaries now paid the judges should be inadequate in view of the additional labor performed by them, a reasonable addition, upon proper representations through the Governor of the State, will be allowed.

PILOTAGE.

V. The pilotage regulations now existing in the States of North and South Carolina are so far modified that, on and after the first day of March, 1868, all passenger steam vessels, registated by the laws of the United States, and carrying a pilot commissioned by United States Commissioners, shall be exempt from the compulsory payment of pilotage.

NORTH CAROLINA POLL TAX.

VI. So much of the act of the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina, entitled "An act to raise monies," ratified on the 26th. day of February, 1867, as makes it "the duty of all persons and corporations to list and pay the [poll] tax of such persons liable to the same, as are in their employment, on the 1st. day of April of each year, as laborers," is rescinded, and hereafter all individual taxes will be assessed directly upon and collected directly from the individuals from whom they are due: provided, that the provisions of this order shall not apply to the taxes levied for the current year except that double poll tax shall not be enforced if the original tax be paid on or before the 1st. day of March, 1868.
